SUFFRAGE BECOMES LAW TODAY

U.S. WOMEN GRANTED RIGHT OF VOTING

WASHINGTON, August 26.—The right of women to the ballot was formally made a part of the constitution of the United States today when Secretary of State Colby proclaimed the ratification of the nineteenth amendment.

Colby announced the proclamation when he arrived at his office today, having signed it shortly before at his home here.

The official certification that Tennessee had become the thirty-sixth state to ratify the amendment was taken to his home early today.

WASHINGTON, August 26.—Declaring the action of Secretary of State Colby today in promulgating ratification of the suffrage amendment as full of peril and a menace to the peace of the nation, Hannis Taylor, author of "The Origin and Growth of the American Constitution," today gave the opinion that the Presidential election in November, whichever candidate wns, may be set aside as illegal because of the votes cast by women.

INCREASED TRANSBAY RATES IN FORCE NOW

The new transbay traffic rates go into force today, and hereafter passengers on the ferries will have to pay eighteen cents for each trip, or if they purchase a commute book it will be $4.80 a month.

The intimation has been given out that rates may go even higher.

Tax Rate For Pittsburg is Fixed at $1.80

The Pittsburg tax rate for the fiscal year of 1920-1921 has been fixed at $1.80, of which $1 is set aside for the general fund and 80 cents for the bond redemption fund. The city has completed the sale of the old City Hall and site to W. J. Buchanan for $17,500. Work on the new City Hall on Los Medanos avenue, recently authorized by the bond issue, will begin shortly, the City Trustees said last night.

Work of Legion at San Diego

SAN DIEGO, August 26.—The new officers elected by the state convention of the American Legion are: Buron T. Fitts of Los Angeles, state commander; William T. Carr, San Diego, first vice commander; Irvin T. Quinn, Eureka, second vice commander; Ruth Gee of Vallejo, former yeomanette in the navy, third vice-commander; Fred F. Bebergall, San Francisco, re-elected secretary treasurer; Reed Cherrington, chaplain; Jack Fentry, Fresno, sergeant at arms; Peter B. Kyne, historian; delegates at large to the national convention—Jack Inman of Sacramento, E. W. Gearhart of Fresno and Sidney Van Wyck of San Francisco.

The new president, B. T. Fitts, has the following to say on the work of the organization for the coming year:

"It is my belief that the American Legion, for the next year at least, must proceed along organization lines. It is my purpose to see that this policy is carried out. I will do all in my power to preach and promulgate the doctrines of the legion. I am assured of the hearty support and cooperation of the north as well as the south, and I have been promised the aid of the leaders throughout the entire department in my efforts to make the legion the best force for good in the confines of California.

"Particularly will I endeavor to stamp out anarchy and sedition where found.

The Japanese resolution, after declaring the present situation a menace and accusing the Japanese of constant violations of the gentleman's agreement, especially in the increasing number of picture brides, sums up the legions' demands thus:

1—Cancellation of the gentleman's agreement.

2—Exclusion of picture brides.

3—Rigorous exclusion of Japanese as immigrants.

4—Confirmation and legalization of the policy that Asiatics shall be forever barred from American citizenship.

5—Amendment to Section 1 of Article 14 of the federal constitution, provdiing that no child born in the United States of foreign parents, shall be considered an American citizen, unless both parentsa re of a race that is eligible to citizenship.

Nor will the matter rest with this going on record, for the resolution instructs the California delegates to the legion's national convention to do their best to get action there.

The Japanese resolution was the most outstanding that came before the delegates, but there were many others of significance which went through.

Among the demands formally voiced were the following:

To maintain the legion's neutrality in disputes between factions of capital and labor.

To prohibit foreign language newspapers, unless they print English translations.

To make Armistice Day, November 11th, a state and national holiday.

To legalize fifteen round boxing bouts.

To give ex-service men $1000 property tax exemption.

To secure increased allowances for men on the retired list.

To ask the governor of California to aid in forest conservation.

To support the Boy Scouts.

To secure dishonorable discharges instead of honorable discharges for conscientious objectors.

To secure subsistence and allowance from the government for disabled soldiers under treatment at home.

Driver of Death Car Surrenders

Charged with manslaughter in connection with running down and killing Ransford A. Crook, world war veteran and federal vocational student at the University of California, yesterday, at Harrison street and San Pablo avenue, O. C. Horssall, 1221 Jefferson street, Berkeley, driver of the stage which hit the youth, surrendered to the police in Berkeley today and was released on his own recognizance. His preliminary hearing will be at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Horssall said he thought the auto stage company would be responsible and that he did not know he was wanted until he saw the story in the newspapers. He said he then surrendered himself. He had previously made a complete report to the automobile stage company.

According to spectators the stage struck Crook and dragged him 90 feet before it stopped. Horssall failed to render aid, it is charged, but drove away. Another autoist took the body to the Roosevelt hospital.

Sleep in Box Car, Taken to Court, Then Given Jobs

Three boys, about eighteen years of age, who are touring the country on the brake rods, were arrested last night by the police while sleeping in a box car. They are from Detroit, and gave their names as Roy Boisjolie, Robert Ellington and Frank Fournier. They appeared in court this morning to answer to charges of vagrancy and were given a reprimand.

Afterwards, the big hearted chief of police, W. H. Woods, went out and got the lads a job, and they are now hard at work.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bond of Sacramento are visiting with J. C. Hitchcock at 12210 Bissell avenue.

Meeting of Harbor Committee

The Harbor Campaign Committee wants every volunteer worker in Richmond who is willing to do his or her bit for the harbor bonds for finishing the project to come forward and enroll.

The volunteers are asked to call on Secretary Wallace or Mrs. Marie Ogborn, assistant secretary, at the Chamber of Commerce; H. A. Johnston, campaign manager, or Secretary H. G. Stidham, of the Point Richmond Commercial Club, and give their names and addresses.

This call was issued at a meeting of the campaign committee, which held its regular meeting at Martin's Grill at noon. There was a large attendance of other citizens, also, the meetings all being open.

The committee decided to start the real campaign September 1st, after the primaries, which take place Aug. 31st, are out of the way.

The automobile stickers and buttons will be distributed then, and literature explaining the harbor project and bearing a diagram showing what work is to be done to finish it will be distributed.

Two or more mass meetings will be held, at which well known speakers will explain the harbor details.

Reports made at today's session by committeemen indicate that about everybody in Richmond knows how necessary it is to finish the harbor and construct at a cost of $150,000 the new warehouses in connection with Wharf No. 1.

Shipping Of Liquor By Mail Serious

According to word received by Postmaster Stairley, a new order, supplementing the provisions of the 18th amendment, has just been issued by the postmaster general providing fine and imprisonment for offering for mailing or placing in the mails spirituous, malt or vinous liquors of any kind, penalty fixed at $1000 or two years' imprisonment, or both. The same order provides a penalty of $10,000 or 20 years' imprisonment, or both, for placing in the mails any device or matter of any kind, liquor or solid, with the intent that the mails shall be injured or that the person addressed, or any other person or persons injured or that the person addessed, or any other person or persons shall thereby be injured. Provision is made for the transmission to physicians, pharmacists or hospitals, in certain instances, of certain chemicals and compositions, but special conditions of shipment are prescribed, copies of which are furnished by the postoffice department.

The Twenty-third street car went off the tracks yesterday and ran into the station near San Pablo. The small building was knocked over.

State Convention American Legion Is To Have Chaplain

The following letter was received today by the Record-Herald from Rev. Paul Little, who is in San Diego atending the state convention of the American Legion:

"Arrived at San Diego Tuesday morning, being a day late to the state convention of the American Legion. (Went to see friends Narbett and Lang at 8:30 and 9:30 a. m. and they were still in the land of dreams.) Our inquiry found out that the different committees had met the night before. Among other important maters the Richmond Post No. 10, was in favor of creating the office of state chaplain. I discovered soon after my arrival that the committee on constitution and by-laws, similar to their action last year, considered the same matter and decided to report "unfavorable." At once I prepared a resolution and the committee again met later in the morning and argued the question and they kindly reversed their former decision and voted to report the resolution as "favorable" providing that on the floor of the convention where it was presenaed that I should speak on the question.

"At mid-afternoon the report of the constitution committee on the matter was presented and the writer secured the floor and addresed the convention in favor of the resolution Without further discussion it was put to a vote and almost unanimously carried. "So the big fight" on that question is settled, and settled right. This young organization needs steadying as any other organization and there are many able men at the convention who are trying to do that. All the Legionaires have secured passports to visit Tia Juna tomorrow evening to a "barbecue" etc. Will have to go to "watch" and guard our delegates.

RECEPTION TENDERED DR. T. A BOYER

Last night at the First Christian Church Reverend and Mrs. T. A. Boyer were the guests of honor at a reception. The occasion was to formally welcome the pastor home from his four months' tour of the country in Chautauqua work.

The dinner, which was served by the young lady members of the Twentieth Century class of which Miss Veda Williams is the president, was prepared by the Ladies Aid of the church, under the direction of Mesdames J. E. Zumwalt, C. W. Duncan, James E. Cryan, F. E. Moore, J. B. Mayfield, E. B. Marshall, J. W. Miller, C. E. Thomas, L. C. Ploof, Joseph Lee and Miss Nannie Nesbit. About one hundred and fifty members were present, and all participated in the general spirit of rejoicing that was manifest in extending a welcome to the returning pastor.

At the close of the festivities an impromptu program was rendered.

Short addresses were made by Rev. A. M. Bahmsen, Mrs. G. W. Duncan, Rev. T. G. Fish, Audrew Wilson, oJs. Lee, Miss Nannie Nesbit, H. O. Watson, C. C. Kratzer, E. J. Crandall, C. W. Duncan, C. H. Martin. Professor J. E. Zumwalt presided as toastmaster.

In response to the general words of welcome which were spoken to him by the representatives of the different branches of his church work, Dr. Boyer was called on and expressed his feeling of deepest appreciation of the regard and esteem that had been so obviously manifest for his efforts.

Reindollar Will Be Victor At Polls on Primary Day

No cleaner campaign has been made by any candidate than that which has been conducted by Charles F. Reindollar, the candidate for state senator in the ninth district which takes in the counties of Contra Costa and Marin, and his work is bearing fruit. The primary election which will be held next Tuesday will settle the contest, and bets are being freely made that Reindollar will be the victor.

Reindollars' experience that he has gained in life will be of vast benefit to the people of the district. He is an attorney of sixteen years' experience, and has practiced at San Rafael. Before that he was a school teacher, and knows not only the needs of the teacher, but the schools as well. He is an agriculturist and has farmed land for a number of years.

Support is coming to him every day and in large amounts. Where he has resided for years in Marin county, the people are behind him solidly, and will send him out of that county with a tremendous vote.

The International Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Marin County Building Trades Council have endorsed him, the Boilermakers' Union of Richmond and the Central Labor Council of this county have endorsed his candidacy.

It has not been necessary for him to go out of his district to receive his recognition. It comes from those who have known him for years, and those who are close in touch with him and know his worth.

When you go to the polls next Tuesday, be sure and cast your ballot for Charles F. Reindollar.

OFFICIAL PAPER CITY OF RICHMOND

PERSONAL ELEMENT IN BUSINESS

"There is no sentiment in business," remarks the man that does not look below the surface. But there is sentiment in business—it is one of the greatest, if not the greatest, element in the conduct of any business.

The merchant of Richmond who has the most friends is the one who is doing the most business. "I like to trade with Jones; he is a fine fellow." How often have you heard that. Now, Brown may handle the same goods and sell them as cheap, but you go to Jones because you like the man. The business man who meets his customers with a smile; who takes an interest in things that interest them; who shows sufficient interest to remember their names and who studies their wants so that he knows what to offer them, is on the sure road to success.

The personal element can never be eliminated from business, and it is well that it cannot. If you wish to keep a man trading at home, keep him interested; keep in touch with him; see that you have the things he needs and will buy—and he will not send to the mail order house for his goods.

CHILDREN'S TRADE

We all remember the old fashioned merchant—though he should not be dignified by that name—who would send anything to you on an order brought by the children, without the slightest regard to whether it was the best, or what, was generally the case, the poorest goods in the store. Today the merchant recognizes the principle of cultivating the trade of children.

A few days ago, in a store in Richmond we saw a merchant wait on a child not more than si yxears old. The little one wanted a few pennies worth of candy or some other small article, but that merchant took just as much care as though he were serving the best customer on his books. Older persons were waiting, it made no difference; and when the transaction was completed, he thanked the child as sincerely as he did the next customer whose purchase was several hundred times greater.

That merchant realized that the child soon grows up and that children are sensitive—also, that they have long memories. The child of today is the grown-up of tomorrow, and if that same spirit prevails with that merchant atall times, we predict that he will not only retain his present splendid business, but that the next generation will see it greater than ever.

"Good health, a clear conscience, a charming wife and a chance to work for my living. What more could I ask?" That was the reply of a well known American when asked what he wanted most in the world, and as he had all those, he could not see the need of asking. It is such as he that makes leaders of men—the kind of men who are needed in this time of upheaval.

One advantage of the depreciated currency of Europe seems to have been to enable farmers to pay off their mortgages. In many cases, it is said, the sale of one calf at present prices would pay off a good sized mortgage. The peasants are now owning their land, while the landlords are getting the worthless paper money.

Mayor of National Park, New Jersey, after mature reflection, decided not to again attempt to defy the injunction of the courts and permit Sunday baseball. Probably a threat of a few weeks entertainment at the expense of the state, surrounded by iron bars, aided his thinker.

Canada believes in getting while the getting is good, and permits all Canadian railroads the same increase in rates to the United States that the Interstate Commerce Commission endorsed. Yet Canadian roads have had no serious complaint of deficit.

What a game of see-saw. Coke goes down; pig iron goes up. Same men own both, so where does the public come in

Have all the women who learned to knit during the war forgotten the art? What wonderful work they could do if they had kept up the good work!

REST ROOMS AND COMFORT STATIONS

There is one point in which we have always been behind our European cousins. Our towns do not provide suitable rest rooms. Women who come to town, have a few minutes or hours on their hands, have no place to go except such as may be provided by private enterprise. This is a public service and should be under direction of the public authorities.

Comfort stations are needed everywhere. It is unfair and unjust to expect such facilities to be furnished by the railroads, the hotels and other public institutions, yet not maintained by the public. This is a movement in which every town should join. Richmond would do well to take up the subject in a way that would mean action for a betterment of conditions.

Quite a number of newspapers are wasting valuable space telling their readers how to eat corn on the hob. We will not ask any instructions, and trust to luck, but what we would like is for some one to tell us how we can get it more often.

New Jersey has just distributed to the counties over $500,000 for improving the roads of the state. The automobile has much to answer for, but its general use has been a great factor in road improvement all over the country.

If this radical business keeps up, we will be in favor of taking every "Red" around to the little red school house, install an old fashioned teacher with a hickory rod, and let him put a little common sense into them.

We read the exchanges pretty carefully, and don't believe we have overlooked it, yet we have not seen any place where either candidate for president has answered the plain questions of his opponent.

Philadelphia now talks of condemning and buying the underlying companies of the street car monopoly. After a season of municipal operation they will be praying for a return to the old regime.

That man who thought the Chinese have no sense of humor should read about the heathen serving our congressmen with ice cream soda and grape juice.

President Willard, of the Baltimore & Ohio railroadd, says the roads will not need any aid for some time. Do not think they would, after the big melon handed them in the rate raise.

New York says that rats cost the city about $35,000,000 per year. Exterminate the rats and prevent disease which they carry, besidet he property they destroy.

Before you make up your mind how you are going to vote, find out if you really know how the president and the vice-president are elected and when the election really occurs.

PLAYGROUNDS AS INVESTMENTS

It is not fair to charge a playground as an expense. A properly equipped and well managed playground is an investment—one of the best investments that any community can make. It is an investment in the men and women of the future. The boys and girls who are enjoying that playground today will be the better men and women for it a few years from now.

Above all, let the playground be properly supervised. Play should be directed, just as much as work. A child does not know how to play by instinct. From the earliest time the parent teaches how to handle its toys. Older children need the same instruction. But a well managed playground with suitable apparatus for all ages of children is an investment that will pay large dividends.

SALTS IF BACKAGHY AND KIDNEYS HURT

When you wake up with a backache and dull misery in the kidney region, it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood, and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, the water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure, and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.—Adv.

BOILS
And High Blood Pressure

Oakland, May 17, 1920.

"From boyhood I have suffered from boils due to impure blood. My blood pressure was so high that for a long time I had severe headaches and my body was continually wet with excess perspiration.

"After having been treated by many doctors, I finally found one who cut my boils open in a fruitless attempt to cure them. When he had cut me about twenty-five times, I quit. I then tried a milder remedy in the form of the FONG WAN CHINESE HERB TEA. I took the herb tea faithfully for about three months, during which time my blood was THOROUGHLY CLEANSED OF ALL IMPURITIES. When my blood had thus become pure and rich, my boils automatically disappeared, and my blood pressure also became normal. I therefore no longer suffer from either headache or excess perspiration.

SUBURBAN LINES LOSE $650,000 IN A YEAR

Declaring that the company's east bay electric suburban lines operated at a loss of over $650,000 last year, vice-president Paul Shoup of the Southern Pacific Company, in a statement issued last night said that the company would welcome investigation of its transbay fares. According to Mr. Shoup an increase of 20 per cent would not take care of the wage increases made last year. His statement in full follows:

"The question of the increase in the transbay rates without the usual hearing is one not different from the question that might be raised quite generally in many localities, and as to many different rates. This question arises no doubt through a misunderstanding of the situation and the conditions governing.

"The Transportation Act of 1920 provides that the Railway companies shall be granted rates that will give them revenues equal to 5 1-2 per cent on the investment as determined by the Interstate Commerce Commission, plus one-half of one per cent in the discretion of the commission for additions and betterments to the property.

"Pending the readjustments following the period of Federal control, that ended March 1st, and the necessity for investigation as to what might be necessary to create these revenues, the government undertook to guarantee the same returns to the railroads that they enjoyed during the war period while under Federal control, this guarantee ceasing on September 1st.

"Being charged under the railway transportation act with the duty of creating revenues in the amount named—this section being known as Section 15-A of the Interstate Commerce Act—it was necessary for the Interstate Commerce Commission to determine what changes in rates should be made, so that by September 1st the act might be in effect and honest effort be made to provide the railways with the revenues they are entitled to under the law.

"The Interstate Commerce Commission undertook this task for which it had a total of only six months with great diligence, confining its efforts at first to a proposed increase in the freight rates. When, however, the Labor Board, created by the same act, reached a conclusion as to the necessary increase in wages for the railway employees amounting to $625,000,000 per annum, the Interstate Commerce Commission had then to revise its conclusions and do this within a very brief time, so that the additional revenues might be provided. In doing so, it found it necessary to raise passenger fares, Pullman fares, express and milk rates. It further found it imposisble to enter into any questions of adjustments within the allotted time, leavng isuch questions open for action after the new rates, freight and passenger, should become effective. It handled the subject in the only practical way, which was to make horizontal increases on a percentage basis. It did not attempt to discriminate as between any class of freight or passenger items.

It requested the State Railroad commissions to join in its conclusions on the broad principle that state and interstate traffic would alike have to join in carrying the increased burden. Obviously any other course would result in defeating the intent of the act.

No earnings are guaranteed any railroad, but under the law it is the obligation of the government to see that such rates are established as will give the return named to the carriers as a whole, or groups of carriers, as determined by the Interstate commerce Commission.

The large majority of the State Railroad Commissions have accepted the Interstate commerce commission request as representative of the spirit of the act—and indeed the only way of making practicable its application. Adjustments, of course, are to be made promptly where the new increases are found to be inequitable.

The order of the Interstate Commerce Commission clearly and definitely includes suburban and commutation rates generally, the language being as follows:

"All passenger fares and charges may be increased 20 per cent. The term 'passenger' fares may be considered to include standard local or interline fares; excursion, convention and other fares for special occasions; commutation and other multiple forms of tickets; extra fares on limited trains; club car charges."

Insofar as the Southern Pacific is concerned, it will welcome a full investigation of its trans-bay fares looking to any adjustment that may be found necessary as a result thereof. It is perhaps proper to point out, however, that all of the facts at our command indicate an adjustment upward rather than downward if any return is to be earned upon the investment made in trans-bay suburban passenger facilities. The net loss from operation during the year ending on December 31, 1919, of the Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley Suburban lectriEc lines exceeded $650,000; they falling short in this amount of earning their operating expenses and taxes without any allowance for return on the investment. The rest of the system is carrying these lines. The increase of 20 per cent will not take care of the necessary wage increases made during last year.

ILLINOIS COAL MINERS SECURE RAISE IN PAY

Chlorine Gas Used for Killing Of Squirrels

What is believed by the farmers throughout this county to at least be a successful and effective weapon against the distructive ground squirrels, which have been distroying thousands of dollars worth of crops and produce in the state during the past years, has been invented by chemists at the Great Western Chemical plant at Pittsburg in the form of chlorine gas, similar to that which was used during the war.

Experiments were conducted with the use of the gas this week by Fred Dirion, representive of the United States Department of Horticulture, on the Hutchinson ranch in the Ygnacio valley. The gas is compressed in containers and with a long hose turned into the squirrel tunnels.

It is stated that almost as soon as the gas is turned on the rodents run from their holes and die. This gas, it is claimed, is by far the most economical and effective method which has yet been found for exterminating the pests and the farmers of this section who have been fighting the creatures for years, believe that the rodents can now be completely eradicated.

'The Love Expert' Featured at the Richmond Today

Helpful hints to girls or boys anxious to ascertain whether one certain member of the opposite sex is responsive to their respective emotions are given in "The Love Expert," starring Constance Talmadge and that will be shown at the Richmond Theatre today.

This production is the workmanship of John Emerson and Anita Loos whose former stories and adaptations for Constance Talmadge since her affiliation with First National Exhibitors' Circuit have been greeted by the theatre-going public at large as classic gems of comedy production.

As Babs, a romantic boarding school girl, Connie is probably in her most delightful characterization. Eschewing the cut and dried educational subjects she devotes herself to self-instruction in the science of practical love-making, with the result that the Board of Regents stimulates another sale for the railroad companies—thus giving Babs a chance to try out her many formulas. The management maintains nothing like it has ever been shown or written before. The picture is from an original scenario by Emerson and Loos.

Police Search For Two Men With Explosives

OAKLAND, August 26.—Two suspicious looking men carrying enough dynamite caps to blow up the Redwood tunnel on the line of the Sacramento Short Line railway, were stopped at the entrance to the tunnel last night, and after a hand to hand fight with who stopped them, fled and left the ex-L. R. Milsuvich, the railway employee, plosive in his possession. The police are searching for them in Oakland and Berkeley.

According to George Mitchell, superintendent of the company, Milsuvich was walking along the railroad tonight when the two men attracted his attention close to the entrance of the tunnel. They caught sight of him just at that moment, and acted in a manner that excited his suspicion.

Milsuvich hailed them, but they refused to stop, so he ran at them. They put down a sack they were carrying and attacked him. Milsuvic knocked one of his assailants down, and then the two fled, leaving the sack. This was found to contain twenty pounds of dynamite caps.
